

Johnson University Florida Fast Facts

Students (2012/2013)

- Enrollment: 371 undergraduate
- Enrollment by gender: 52 percent male and 48 percent female
- States represented by our students: 21
- Student-to-faculty ratio: 18:1
- Number of alumni: 1,038

Annual Tuition and Fees (2013/2014)

- Tuition and Fees: $11,530 (full year, full-time)
- Campus Housing: $2,900 (full year)
- Total cost: $14,430

Academics

- Bachelor's Degree programs: 14
- Associate Degree programs: 2

Administration

- President: Gary E. Weedman, Ph.D.
- Chief Operating Officer: David Eubanks, Ph.D.
- Vice President for Academic Affairs/Provost: Christopher A. Davis, Ph.D.

Campus

- Johnson University's 40-acre Florida campus is located right in the heart of Central Florida, 15 miles south of Orlando.

History

- Founded in Orlando as Central Florida Bible College in 1975; renamed Florida Christian College and moved to the present campus in 1986
- Merged with Johnson University in 2013 and renamed Johnson University Florida
- School colors: orange and white

Accreditation and Associations

- Johnson University Florida is accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges (SACSCOC) to award associate's, bachelor's, master's, and doctor's degrees.
- Johnson University Florida also holds institutional accreditation from the Commission on Accreditation of the Association for Biblical Higher Education.

Religious Affiliation

- Johnson University Florida is a nondenominational university associated with the independent Christian churches/churches of Christ with a heritage rooted in the Restoration Movement (also known as the Stone-Campbell Movement). While the majority of students come from these churches, followers of Christ from many denominations are represented.